

NAPLES FLORIDA WEEKLY®

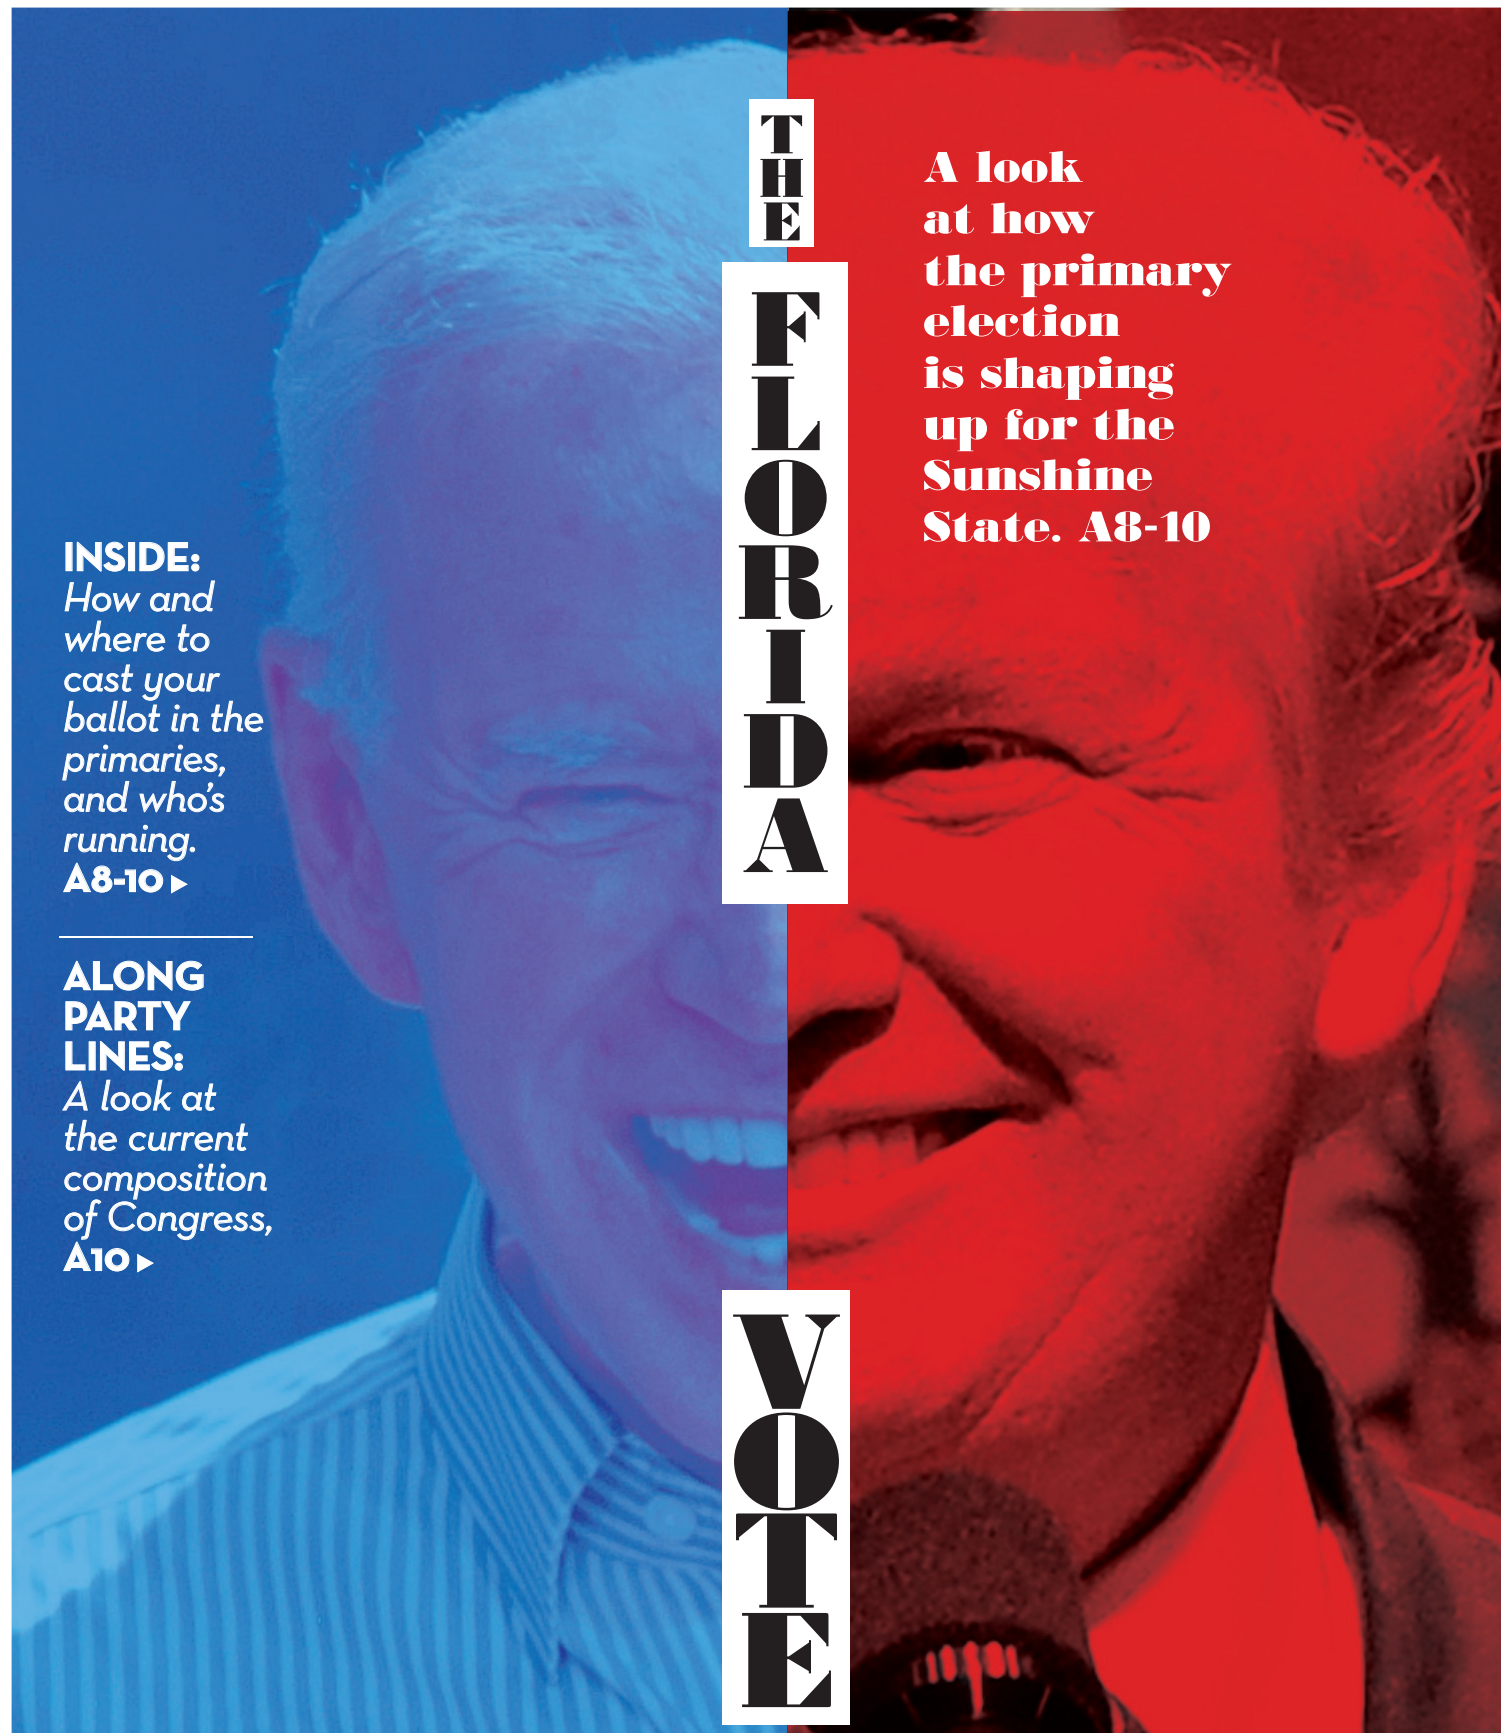

IN THE KNOW. IN THE NOW.

WEEK OF AUGUST 6-12, 2020

www.FloridaWeekly.com

Vol. XII, No. 42 • FREE

PHOTOS BY MATT SMITH AND GINO SANTA MARIA FOR SHUTTERSTOCK / ILLUSTRATION ERIC RADDATZ / FLORIDA WEEKLY

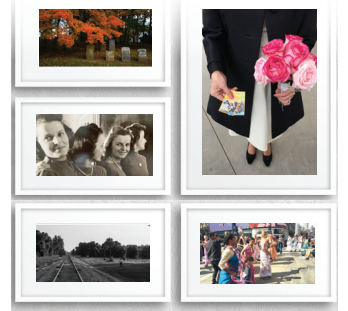

INSIDE:
How and where to cast your ballot in the primaries, and who's running. A8-10 ▶

ALONG PARTY LINES:
A look at the current composition of Congress. A10 ▶

A look at how the primary election is shaping up for the Sunshine State. A8-10

INSIDE

Arts & Entertainment

A report on the 2020 Florida Weekly Writing Challenge to date. B1 ▶

Happy employees

It's more important than ever for employees to know you care about them. A21 ▶

"Scout" snakes

Agencies partner up to track and remove invasive Burmese pythons. A14 ▶

Time to save

Back-to-school sales tax holiday Friday through Sunday, Aug. 7-9 — make the most of it. A6 ▶

Download our FREE App today

Available on the iTunes and Android App Store.

Florida Weekly earns top honors in state journalism awards

Named best weekly newspaper in state for the sixth time

FLORIDA WEEKLY STAFF

The Florida Press Association has named Florida Weekly the best weekly newspaper in the state after the newspaper racked up 20 journalism awards at a virtual awards program Friday, July 31.

This is the sixth time Florida Weekly has won the state's top award. In addition to this year's awards for weekly newspapers with circulation above 15,000, Florida Weekly writers, designers and editors won nine first place, eight second place and three third place awards.

Writer Evan Williams won the prestigious Claudia Ross Memorial Award for Investigative Reporting for a report on Florida's greyhound racing industry and its demise.

"Florida Weekly packed a lot of information into its investigation into the end of greyhound racing in Florida, and that earned it first place in the category," contest judges said.

It is the fifth time that Florida Weekly

SEE HONORS, A12 ▶

BEACH & GOLF CLUB MIROMAR LAKES
THE #1 COMMUNITY IN THE USA!
New Waterfront Homes and Golf Estate Villas
MiromarLakes.com ~ 239.425.2340